

Attention FDA

5629 '00 MAR 22 10:33

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? NO

Let the F.D.A. pay for it if they want it done?

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ... One salesman said that he sold my grandfather a hearing aid. The salesman is 24 years old and my grandfather has been deaf for 40 years and he was trying to say that the Effect Hearing aid is not good and have had Effect Hearing aids for about eight years?

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment? NO

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes They are as good as any you can get.
